

Author of the Term— Term 1—Oliver Jeffers

This week, the children were introduced to the author of the term for term 1: Oliver Jeffers.

Oliver Jeffers is a visual artist and author working in painting, bookmaking, illustration, collage, performance, and sculpture. Curiosity and humour are underlying themes throughout Oliver's practice as an artist and storyteller. He has written many children's books including, 'How to Catch a Star', 'What We'll Build' and 'I'm a Little Stuck.' He has also illustrated books like 'The Day the Crayons Quit'. During the assembly we also spoke about the importance of children books for every age and how they discuss complex issues a friendly way; build vocabulary; bridge the gap between generations and most importantly enthuse readers.

Challenge:

Your challenge is to write your own short picture book about whatever you want but it must include pictures.

Give them to your teacher who will then pass them onto me— Miss Scarr

Entries due by Friday 14th October

I cant wait to read them!

Entries will be put up on display in the hall.

Good luck
Miss Scarr
